

Headphones

The Library offers public computers for use by visitors, but is unable to provide headphones. Connection points will be provided at each computer workstation so that customers can easily plug in a personal set of headphones. Headphones may be brought into the Library from home or purchased at the Library's cost at the Youth Services Reference Desk or any Circulation Desk.