FEATURED EVENTS

BOOKMARK THIS!

YAM: YOUTH ART MONTH

March is Youth Art Month & the Library & art teachers from Zionsville Community Schools are collaborating to emphasize the value of art & quality school art education for all children.

Library visitors will find featured displays of art created by ZCS students in grades K - 12. Special art classes for children (K - 5) will also be offered by local & ZCS art teachers; see the Youth list of programs (other side) for details. These special events are marked with a star.

Join us for an Art Open House preview night on Fri., Mar. 2 @ 5:30 - 7 PM.

INTRODUCING OUR NEW LIBRARY DIRECTOR

SARAH MOORE is all about building relationships. It's a talent she is eager to indulge as the next Executive Director at our Library.

"We are very excited to have Sarah join our team," said Sandy Sifferlen, Library Board of Trustees President. "She has a demonstrated record of leadership and strategic vision."

Moore previously served as the Director of Richwood-North Union Public Library in Richwood, Ohio where she focused on fostering community relationships. In one year alone, she spearheaded collaborations with 59 community groups, organizations and businesses that resulted in the development of new library services and resources for residents.

"It is really exciting to have the opportunity to lead a library with so much community support behind it," said Moore. "Working together, I'm sure we will discover new ways to better serve our residents."

Moore earned her Master's Degree in Library Science at Indiana University - Bloomington and has held a variety of positions at libraries in Colorado, Indiana and Ohio. Moore will officially join the Library Team Mon., Feb. 19.
