SUMMER READING WITH OUR LIBRARY AMBASSADORS

EARNING GREAT PRIZES during Summer Reading really motivates most of the family, but Mom Heather really appreciates being able to record their reading online.
"It simplifies the process and, for me, that is huge."

The Library uses BEANSTACK, an online reading program and recommendation service that patrons may use to record their reading. The service may be used alone or in conjunction with the Summer Reading paper logs. See how to create an account above.

Husband Matt agrees, "We don't need a lot of extra motivation to read, but winning free books is nice, and it's fun to get rewarded for something we're doing anyway."

Girls Clare and Emma are equally motivated to reach their prize goals; they love filling in their reading logs every night.

This family also uses the reading program to initiate book discussions and read books together. Adults may be surprised to learn that books they read to children also count toward their own Summer Reading goals. Please watch for more information about this option in the Summer Newsletter.

Matt, Heather, Clare and Emma hope you will join them in reading and winning prizes during ROCKIN' SUMMER READING from May 25 – July 28.

Prizes will include books, gift cards, and music-related items for all ages!
